MEDIA ADVISORY

Block Party

WHO: Parks and Recreation Department and District 3 City Representative
Cassandra Hernandez

WHAT: Community Block Party

WHEN: 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. on Wednesday, August 7

WHERE: Seville Recreation Center, 6700 Sambrano Ave.

To celebrate the start of school and say goodbye to summer, District 3 City Representative Cassandra Hernandez and the El Paso Parks and Recreation Department invite the community to a "Block Party" at the Seville Recreation Center located at 6700 Sambrano Ave.

The free, family-friendly event will feature various fun activities and resources for the community to enjoy. There will be several informational booths from various City departments, including the El Paso Police, Fire and Public Health Departments, Sun Metro, Animal Services and Municipal Court. In addition, various partner organizations will be on hand including El Paso Electric, YWCA El Paso Del Norte Region, United Way of El Paso, Real Talk and Workforce Solutions Borderplex among others.

The block party will include a giant waterslide, a water dunking booth, jumping balloons, game booths, music, as well as food and refreshments. Activities will be held around the recreation center with booths in various locations. Giveaways and prizes will also be available, including chances to win backpacks and school supplies.

For more information on the Block Party, call (915) 212-0003 or visit District 3 City Representative Cassandra Hernandez's Facebook page at facebook.com/cassandrahernandezdistrict3.
