Parks and Recreation to host Labor Day Festival and Concert

EL PASO, Texas – The Parks and Recreation Department, in sponsorship with Cigna HealthSpring, invites the public to enjoy the Labor Day weekend with a Labor Day Festival and Concert from noon to 10 p.m. on Sunday, September 1, at San Jacinto Plaza.

The festival is an opportunity for families to enjoy San Jacinto Plaza and the outdoors with different forms of entertainment.

The festival will provide a variety of family-friendly activities including educational booths, health screenings, games for children and adults, a water dunking booth, jumping balloon, food trucks and vendors, as well as various live performances from local artists and performers. Various organizations from across the city will also be on hand providing information about goods and services available to the community.

In addition, Cigna HealthSpring will have its mobile clinic at the festival from noon to 7 p.m. Health professionals and coaches will provide a variety of health screenings from glucose, diabetes, blood pressure, and cholesterol to body mass index and healthy living information. The screenings are free to every adult.

Outdoor Concert

Live performances start at 4:30 p.m. with The Tributo al Divo de Juarez Concert followed by "Siluetas" Band, Armonia Choir, Alberto Luna, Ximena and other performers. Voz y Estilo will take the stage at 6 p.m. and "Hugo Cortez, La JG de Juárez" will perform at 8 p.m.

Festival-goers are encouraged to arrive early and bring lawn chairs for the concerts chairs. The festival is free and open to the public.

For more information on the Labor Day Festival and Concert, call the Parks and Recreation Department at (915) 212-0092.
